INTRODUCTION

Namastè and welcome to Byron Yoga Teacher Training, where the teachers are dedicated to delivering complete and holistic Yoga Teacher Training courses. By undertaking the Byron Yoga Teacher Training courses, you will gain the skills and knowledge necessary to teach yoga to others with a new awareness and understanding. You will deepen your own practice on a physical, mental and spiritual level by gaining fresh insight and appreciation of the yogic path.

THE CENTRE

Byron Yoga Centre started teaching yoga students 20 years ago. Situated at 51 Border Street, Belongil Beach, Byron Bay, it is a 2 minute walk to the beach and 10 minute walk into town. The Centre runs Teacher Training Courses and daily general yoga classes by experienced Teachers of diverse styles in two large well lit, fully equipped yoga rooms.

WHAT MAKES OUR COURSES UNIQUE

- International YOGA ALLIANCE Registration

Byron Yoga is one of the only Yoga Teacher Training Centres in Australia at the moment that has both the 200 and 500 hour YOGA ALLIANCE course registration. This gives graduates international recognition.

- National YTAA Registration

The Byron Yoga Teacher Training Course is also registered with YOGA TEACHERS ASSOCIATION OF AUSTRALIA. This gives graduates full national recognition, important for gaining insurance.

- High contact hours – Low course cost – High teacher/student ratio

Byron Yoga offers higher-than-required (for Yoga Alliance registration) contact teaching hours, with very low course fees (and possibly the lowest in Australia). Class sizes are kept to an average of 18 students with at least 2 teachers in class at all times, and a maximum of 20 students.

- Valuable Practice Teaching Opportunities in a Charitable activity

Byron Yoga Centre conducts community, subsidised, beginners classes where graduates of the Yoga Teacher Training Course teach on a rotational roster. This is a unique opportunity to gain firsthand teaching experience and consolidate what has been learnt in the course. A senior teacher offers supervisory support and feedback. All proceeds from the classes are donated to specific Byron Yoga charities, in the spirit of the first limb of Ashtanga Yoga, the Yama – Aparigraha: non-greed in order to simplify life by adopting an attitude of generosity.

- Assisting in Senior Teachers' Classes

Committed graduates will be invited to assist in classes of Byron Yoga's senior teachers from time to time, giving valuable exposure to teaching methodology, including adjustments, corrections and use of yoga props. The aspiring yoga teacher has the opportunity to gain valuable insights on how they would conduct their own class.

- Ongoing Professional Development Support

Byron Yoga aims to keep in contact with all past graduates with regular Newsletters, Manual updates, annual Workshops, and with practical teaching experience as outlined above. Annual sabbaticals exclusively for Teacher Training graduates are also a feature. The Byron Yoga Teachers are committed to their own ongoing professional development and passing on their own knowledge to student teachers.

TEACHER TRAINING TEACHERS

JOHN OGILVIE, founder and director of Byron Yoga, has been teaching yoga for over twenty years. He encourages a light heartedness in our approach to yoga and to ourselves. Classes with John are both challenging and dynamic, and integrate the different yoga styles of Iyengar and Ashtanga, as well as the softer Sivananda and Satyananda practices of yoga and the energy principles of Aikido.

STEPHAN KAHLERT is a trained psychologist with over twenty years experience as a yoga and meditation practitioner. He has facilitated many international corporate workshops and seminars on stress management and travels regularly to India to deepen his practice. Stephan sees meditation as a scientific approach into the mind as well as a deep relaxing into the present moment. His teaching style is engaging and fun.

JUDY KRUPP is a senior certified Teacher who has been practising yoga for twenty-three years and studied Iyengar Yoga in Sydney. She has extensive experience with instructing yoga courses. The style of yoga taught by Judy Krupp incorporates work from the Iyengar principles of alignment and the therapeutic potential of asanas, combined with vinyasa flow work from the Ashtanga practice and the viniyoga philosophy of T.K.V. Desikachar.

KARA GOODSSELL is a senior certified teacher and has been trained in dynamic Vinyasa flow style Hatha Yoga by John Ogilvie from the Byron Yoga Centre, as well as regularly attending yoga workshops by other senior teachers. She has been teaching beginners, general and intermediate classes for three years since her four year apprenticeship with John. Kara explores yoga asana, pranayama (breathing techniques) and Dhyana (meditation) in a safe and joyful class, offering students the opportunity to deepen their awareness and practice with integrity and fun. She is constantly updating her skills and expanding her yoga teaching experience.

CONSTA GEORGOUSSIS started with Ashtanga Yoga in Byron Bay more than ten years ago. His main aim in teaching is to help students develop consistent self-practise that is guided by gentleness and awareness of their own needs and rhythms, so they may realise their inner light. Consta has extensive experience instructing yoga teacher training courses.

DANIELLE SHERLOCK is passionate about chanting and meditation and teaches Anatomy, Physiology and Nutrition. Danielle is a Naturopath and Remedial Sports Therapist. Her experience of yoga spans 14 years, traditionally trained in Iyengar. Spending some time in Sri Lanka practicing and working with Traditional Chinese Medicine in Colombo Hospital, Danielle's teaching incorporates a well rounded approach to assist your awakening into a deeper experience of yoga.

JACINTA MCEWAN has been practicing the healing arts for over twenty years. Initially trained as a Nurse at the Royal Adelaide Hospital, she went on to become a Naturopath, Herbalist, Massage Therapist, Yoga teacher and Ayurvedic practitioner. STUDENT ASSESSMENT PROCESS

In our Yoga Teacher Training Courses, a holistic assessment process is used, based on the principles of adult learning. The trainees' activities are regularly assessed throughout the Course, using at least three different assessment tools – eg performance checklist, portfolio checklist, verbal and written checklist.

The Training Course Units are structured with Units of Competence and Performance Criteria within a Range of Variables, and students are individually assessed using the above methods. Copies of the completed checklists are signed by the Assessor and the trainee, with the original retained by the Training Centre and a copy given to the Trainee.

What constitutes approval or non-approval? The student is found either competent or not yet competent in the subject being assessed based on satisfactorily meeting the requirements of the Performance Criteria. If a student is deemed not yet competent, provision is made for them to further study or practice and a reassessment is undertaken, within the timeframe of the course.

A student wishing to appeal against an assessment decision may make a formal request for re-assessment of their work by submitting a Request for re-assessment form which is available on request.

Attendance is a necessary part of the assessment process, with students requiring an 80% attendance rate to be eligible for certification.
